

Final exam MICROECONOMETRICS

Final written exam has two parts. Both parts contain combinations of theoretical questions and numerical and practical questions (interpretation and calculus from given Stata outputs). First part of exam is related to the microeconometrics and the second part is related to panel data econometrics. Final exam has 50 points.